VOL. III. NO. 249.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

FLORA LOUISE'S GOOD RACE.

Flora Louise, Scoggan Bros.' handsome Florist—Mary Louise filly, won many new admirers by her game race at Harlem yesterday. She was asked to give away weight to everything but Judge Wardell in the four and one-half furlong condition race. The ring made her a 2 to 1 favorite. She was sometimes as good as 2½ to 1 but closed at 11 to 5. Caywood rode Flora Louise, and getting away in the rear was interfered with a lot in the first sixteenth. On the turn, though, there was an opening and Caywood shot the filly through. When straightened away Billy Mason had a clear lead and seemed to have everything back of him in trouble. Caywood gave Flora Louise sharp punishment with his heels, and seventy yards out was on even terms with Billy Mason. At the end Billy Mason went to weariness of legs and Flora Louise won by a good head.

Considering that the filly carried 115 pounds, and had a more than fair field behind her, the race was far more than an ordinary one.

It was Bannockburn's initial appearance and he made a favorable impression. He is a big, dark brown, almost black, and resembles his stable companion, Moncreith.

Thirteen of the twenty-three named for the first race went to the post. Alva's Pet was backed from 5 to 1 to 3 to 1. Peg Parks from 10 to 6 to 1, Wiggins from 4 to 3½ to 1, and nearly all the others nibbled at.

Judicious, a fast youngster, by Julien, opened at 10 to 1, drifted to 30 to 1 and was then backed down to 25 to 1 by post time.

Master Gray rode this trick, and getting off near the front, took command on the far turn and was never headed.

Mamie Callan, at 7 to 1, scored in the second race and her owner, Stover, had a good bet across the board on the filly. The field was at the post half an hour. Narvaez saved Mamie Callan skilfully, and getting off in front won with something to spare. Miss Young, the favorite, much used at the post, was fifth.

The Tory, well handled by Knapp, won the third race in a staggering sort of way.

Serena, after a rousing finish through the stretch with Milwaukee, landed the fourth by a short head. Master Woods rode Serena beautifully. He sat still like a veteran and seemed to rather laugh at Tommy Burns.

W C T was a 1 to 3 choice for the last race and won it cleverly.

Benson, Arthur & Co. have lost their insane but useful selling plater, Trilby. She died of lung fever.

The Harlem meeting will close Thursday, October 28. After that the local racing scene will shift to the Indiana tracks.

JOCKEY CLUB CUTS RACING FEES.

The Jockey Club met last Thursday. The members present were F. H. Hitchcock, K. K. Knapp, A. H. Morris, C. Oliver Iselin, T. Hitchcock, Jr., Andrew Miller, S. S. Howland, James Galway, Jesse Brown and C. Fellowes. Mr. F. R. Hitchcock presided. The following amendments to the racing rules were adopted: Rule 165, by adding a new paragraph, as follows:

"The Stewards of the Jockey Club shall have power to modify, change, or remit any penalty or fine imposed by them."

Rule 156, second paragraph, to read as follows:

"In the absence of a specified contract the fee to a jockey in all races not exceeding $300 to the winning horse shall be $15 for a winning mount and $5 for a losing mount; in all other races, $25 for a winning mount and $10 for a losing mount."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Such horsemen as August Belmont, John Sanford, James Galway, P. J. Dwyer, K. K. Knapp, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., A. H. Morris, William Laimbeer, C. Littlefield, Jr., M. F. Dwyer, W. Chanler, P. Dunne, J. W. Colt and R. Walden are credited with signing an agreement to regulate prices of entries to selling races, a natural method of bidding under the rules.

Hugh Penny's new employers are Charles Fair and J. A. Harvey of San Francisco. Fair is the son of the ex-Senator, and Joe Harvey owns Wheel of Fortune. Mr. Fair is trying to buy Installator. The Roman, Victor and a few others from Charles Boots.

After the Sansaleto, Cal., ordinance against pool rooms had passed the operators went on. The police raided the rooms and arrested the keepers, employees and the first ten players that came to hand.

It has, it is said, been decided that Mr. Caldwell will do the starting at Ingleside the coming winter.

INGALLS' PARK STAR EVENTS.

Harlem will close Wednesday, so as not to conflict with the special efforts of Star Pointer and Joe Patchen against the pacing records and the general harness racing around it at Ingalls' Park, Joliet, Ill. The Ingalls' Park programme is full of deep interest and is likely to attract a large crowd of Chicagoans. Three special trains leave Chicago for Joliet at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday.

fever that cost owners so much on all tracks this fall.

It looks as if M. F. Dwyer might be planning a California foray for the coming winter.
